CASCHA HH1600IT BLUES HARMONICA SET

Cascha Harmonica

Blues Harmonica in C Diatonic The Cascha Blues Harmonica is perfect for beginners through to advanced players. It's always handy and you can learn to play it quick and easy. The Harmonica is tuned in the key of C, which is the most common and most used tuning of harmonicas. It's a suitable instrument for either solo playing or in combination with other instruments such as guitar or ukulele. The perfect tuning of the harmonica allows you to play single tones as well as multiple tones at once with ease. The Cascha Blues harmonica with its high quality copper reed plates, easy to clean plastic comb, plastic hard case and cleaning cloth is the perfect instrument for beginners which will bring joy to even an advanced player.

Harmonica: Learn to play - quick and easy (incl. MP3-CD)

You can quickly start playing the first songs on your harmonica with this course. The combination of instructional book and MP3 CD offers every beginner the perfect introduction. The most important basics are explained concisely and simply. Then you can start playing! The ability to read sheet music is not necessary, everything you need is additionally represented with simple symbols. On the accompanying CD all exercises and songs are included. There are great playback songs in two versions: with the harmonica playing first as an example, then without harmonica, so you can play along. This way you can listen to everything carefully and then play with accompaniment.

It makes harmonica playing fun!
